•Times-Argus review of our 2008 production of
The Man of La Mancha

....The Commons Group opened a splendid production of the hit Broadway musical Wednesday at the Skinner Barn that takes the audience right into the world of the earnest and errant knight. Superbly cast, this production transcends the superficiality of most Broadway-style productions...The consistently fine cast combined New York actors with Vermonters, both professional and community, seamlessly. -Jim Lowe

•Seven Days review of our 2010 production of
Lucky Stiff

For the venue's annual summer musical, Barn baron Peter Boynton presents a raucous, cartoonish caper crammed with deliciously over-the-top roles. All 11 members of the cast radiate scenery-chewing glee — and demonstrate excellent singing chops — as they bring to life the 40 crazy characters of the Lynn Ahrens/Stephen Flaherty 1988 musical farce. Director Nick Corley uses imaginative staging to conjure swift scene changes and exotic locales among the converted hayloft's rustic posts and beams. -Elisabeth Crean
